Keynote speaking

Being a Master of Ceremonies

The Master of Ceremonies is the "conductor" of an event or meeting. The primary responsibility of the Master of Ceremonies is to serve as a genial host. An ideal MC is a person who has poise, presence and who can command the attention of an audience.

The Master of Ceremonies is responsible for ensuring that the program/event runs smoothly, runs on time and that all speakers at the event are introduced in a complimentary, professional manner. Being a successful Master of Ceremonies requires, preparation, a friendly manner and ability to adjust to/ad lib as necessary to ensure a successful event. +more

Leadership

There is nothing like experiential activities for bringing out the spirit of fun and co-operation in your conference!

These problem-solving exercises require only the most elementary infrastructure, enabling them to be run in almost any locale or environment. The main ingredient in all of them is the participants' energy and imagination!. +more

Warrior

The Warrior school is the most powerful and exhilarating event your team will experience.

Using the ancient ways of the Samurai warriors and the art of Japanese Sword Fencing, individuals are taken on a journey that tests their commitment, building self-trust, raising the bar and focus.

The activity is taught by a Kendo Master, with the sessions taking participants step by step through the art and skills of Kendo - the way of the warrior... +more
