

Murder on Menu

Come and be treated to the crime of your life! Are you looking for a memorable team-related event that fits in perfectly with your next evening function? Your answer is Murder on the menu for an evening of festivity, laughter and celebration!

Overview

This is a brilliant formula for an evening of entertainment and socialisation. Teambuilding Australia directs and facilitates the night's program. We work with your group to hook them into the storyline and characters so that as murder mystery guests immersed in an unforgettable whodunit. Guests become real sleuths and as the night unfolds they are given clues, obituaries and other tangible items that will assist them in solving what at first seems a daring murder. Each person is a murder suspect who is treated to a colourful, entertaining night of drama and suspense that unfolds during your evening meal.

We conduct Murder on the menu for groups of 8 all the way up to 100 delegates. We can help you with tips, some costumes, props and just about every thing that is required for your evening program.
