

Warrior

the way of the warrior. Does your team have power, confidence within and trust to follow through?

The Warrior school is the most powerful and exhilarating event your team will experience.

Using the ancient ways of the Samurai warriors and the art of Japanese Sword Fencing, individuals are taken on a journey that tests their commitment, building self-trust, raising the bar and focus.

The activity is taught by a Kendo Master, with the sessions taking participants step by step through the art and skills of Kendo - the way of the warrior...

The activity is superb for teams that wishing to encourage Culture change, explore new learning paradigms such as 'Raising the Bar' and also an understanding of self leadership, accountability and actions.

Suited as a 2 hour session, with options to include additional progressive learning, extra tuition sessions, indoor business programs and also a tailored Leadership Program.
